Dear Parents,

I hope you are well and not too overwhelmed by the current events!

As you might expect, the immediate future of Religious Education classes at the building is going to be difficult. We may be forced to begin this year a little differently, but I am sure we can all grow in our relationship with God and our Faith. Please realize that God will be with us through it all, and His Divine Providence will enlighten us and guide us.

In order to have a program that will assist the children in their Faith Formation, we will have to buy into a digital book and resources. There will be a hard copy book, so that when we are in the classroom, it can be used as well. Your Registration Fee is needed to defray the cost of the program.

Please realize that many of our volunteer teachers are older and may have reservations about returning in September. I, therefore, have to prepare for a different format. I will be there for you and the children, and we will get through this together.

Change is difficult for all, but with patience, God's help, and our willingness to give something new a try, our children will gain knowledge and deepen their relationship with Jesus.

My prayer for a healthy and relaxing summer.

God Bless You,
Sister Phylis
